Psalm 132:13 – 15a

“For the LORD has chosen Zion; He has desired it for His habitation, This is My rest forever; here will I dwell; for I have desired it. I will abundantly bless her provision...”
Psalm 132: 13 – 15a

Surely most every saint has faced the question; the temptation – has the Lord God been faithful to me? In the struggles of life’s journey this is often a question that nags at the back of the mind of the finest Christian. The real question though is this – “Have I been faithful to God?” But in this spiritual pilgrimage of ours maybe we should ask an intermediate question – is it possible that I have failed to see God’s faithfulness in my life because I have failed to be faithful to God’s purposes in the earth?

Without a question we understand God to be faithful. We know it intuitively and we are taught by the Holy Scriptures – God is faithful! (1 Corinthians 1:9; 1 Corinthians 10:13; 1 Thessalonians 5:24).

You see my son, the faithful see faithfulness – they recognize it because they are themselves faithful. Could it be that those who rarely or never see God’s faithfulness, are blind to it because it is such a foreign concept to them?

The sun came up this morning didn’t it?!

It is critical that you be found faithful in all your ways. Faithfulness is not an option, for those who will reign with Christ are the “called, the chosen and the faithful.” (Revelation 17:14). It is faithfulness that Christ looks for in the man He chooses for His purposes. (2 Timothy 2:2; Matthew 24:45; 1 Timothy 1:12).

“Lord Jesus, thank You for being faithful to me even when I was not faithful to You and Your ways. May I, with Your help, demonstrate faithfulness all the days of my life! In Your name I pray. Amen!”
