Psalms 133

“Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!” Psalm 133:1

Above all else guard your unity with family, friends, and church – and yes, even with yourself. Division, double mindedness and strife are grievous and cause untold heartache. Unity is a picture for us of the Godhead’s own blessed Oneness! “Hear O Israel, the LORD our God is One LORD.” (Deuteronomy 6:4) Unity brings the Anointing of God, the favour of God, and the power of God on to the scene. (John 17; Matthew 18:19).

“It is like the precious ointment upon the head that ran down upon the beard even Aaron’s beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments.” Psalm 133:2

Today, in our nice and proper religious manner, we may use a drop or two of anointing oil. Not so with the Old Testament priest or prophet. They would pour the entire flask or bottle on the head of the recipient! The whole bottle! Oil was flowing everywhere! That’s the true picture of the anointing God has in mind for our lives! He wants His Anointing to flow over us and get on everything we touch! He wants His Oil to go everywhere we go and be on everything we touch!

“As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.” Psalm 133:3

Where there is unity, the blessing of God is a commanded blessing! Like the morning dew that falls upon all that is open to the sky, so the commanded blessing of God falls upon all that will obey Him and walk in unity!

Guard the unity of your thought life! Singleness of purpose will produce great blessing! Parents, don’t allow your children to fight, it will rob your home of the commanded blessing! Watch out for backbiting at work – you may be cutting off God’s supply to your life! Church should be a safe place – guard the unity of the faith!

“Lord, we’re ready for Your commanded blessing upon our head, even as You anointed Aaron! I want everything I touch to have the fragrance of Your Anointing upon it!”
