Psalm 136:1

---

“O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever.” Psalm 136:1

Because the Lord’s mercies endure forever we should offer Him our thanks! What do you have to be thankful for this day? When it’s dark, when trials press hard, when the waters of trouble seem to overflow, when the fire turns hottest – it can be difficult to see what there is in life for which to offer thanks! But there is always something. No matter how tiny or seemingly insignificant there is always something for which to give thanks.

It is one thing to read about praise... it is far better to do it!

“Lord, I give thanks because You always...”

“Since You have done ..... for me, and I give thanks!”

“Considering all my stubbornness and sins of .....I humbly say “Thank You for loving me!”

“O give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever!”

Give Him wholehearted thanks over and over – again and again. Your heart will welcome the relief from anger, unbelief, gossip, bad news, fears, pride, worry and anxiety!

“Thank You Lord my name is written in heaven..

Thank You Lord for...

Thank You Lord because...

Thank You Lord!”
