Psalm 138:8

“The LORD will perfect that which concerns me. Your mercy O LORD endures forever; forsake not the works of Your own hands.” Psalm 138:8

Troubles? Uncertainty? Confusion? Too many choices? Speaking of which, what if I make the wrong choice? What if...?

Why do you worry about things too large for your own thoughts? Is it possible to make the wrong choice? Of course it is – Adam’s choice plunged the whole of Creation into darkness. Your choices in life do matter! And not just for yourself – they affect your family and the generations that follow! Your decisions impact those you live with, work with, and worship with!

The load may be heavy to bear, but it is the truth and it must be faced and borne. To shrink away from this truth is to choose to leave your fate in the hands of the Law of Death that is presently working in the world. The Lord calls us to be proactive – to choose His life and thereby resist death. (Deuteronomy 30:15 – 20).

My son, by choosing God’s life and then daily walking with Him we are freed from the fears of making the wrong choices. Placing our trust in Christ, committing our way to His care, ensures that He will cover every detail. Should however, we miss the mark, we also know that as a good and merciful Father, He will make things right.

“For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things He planned for us long ago.” Ephesians 2:10 NLT

“Being confident of this very thing, that He Who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.” (Philippians 1:6).

“Father, what hope I have in You! What rest! What assurance! I am secure in knowing that You will do what I cannot do and that You will “present me faultless before Your presence with exceeding joy! Alleluia!” (Jude 24).
