Psalm 139:14

“I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows right well.” Psalm 139:14

“Spirit of the Living God, give to us a revelation of this truth – that we are fearfully and wonderfully made. And may we know that we know this truth! In Jesus’ name, Amen!”

We swing from one extreme to the other – self loathing or self importance – both are wrong, neither reflect the truth. One shows disdain for the work of the Creator; angry that He made you as He did. The other extreme is full of self and fails to acknowledge the Lord’s work in making us, trusting falsely in the supposed inherit goodness of self.

It appears few people are ever really at peace, either with themselves or with God concerning who and what they are. The few who are at peace with who and what they are are said to be “comfortable in their own skin.” And what of you? Do you rage against the Lord because of your physical characteristics? Or maybe its the family you were born into, ...or not born into... that causes you grief?

Jesus didn’t make any mistakes concerning you! You are “His workmanship created in Christ Jesus...” (Ephesians 2:10). Literally, you are His “work of art” or His “poem.” There is no one else like you! You are a unique individual. God has a custom tailored plan for you and your life... and He loves you – just as you are – but it doesn’t end there! You are a “work in progress.” So, if you aren’t satisfied today, not to worry, for tomorrow will be a different day and will bring you a day closer to being the person whom He intended for you to become!

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.” (2 Corinthians 3:18).

“And that my soul knows right well!”
