

Before the THRONE The Devotional

Volume 2

Books of Poetry

Song of Solomon 1:4b

“The King has brought me into His chambers.” Song of Solomon 1:4b

There is yet another area of fellowship with the Lord Jesus. “Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and dine with him, and he with Me.” (Revelation 3:20). While this is a general invitation to fellowship with Jesus, we may be even more specific without hurting either the intent or spirit of the text.

The Lord invites us and Paul instructs us – we are called to intimacy with Jesus at His Covenant Table. Whether we call it Communion, the Lord’s Supper, or the Eucharist, it is a relevant and critical aspect of the deeper fellowship with Christ. It is here, at this Table, we remember and even face His broken body and shed blood! Never meant to be taken glibly or casually, it is a meal of Covenant! Both parties sit together and seal and remember their vows before one another. Christ comes with His ALL and we come with our NOTHING. The exchange is made by faith. He receives of our nothingness and we in turn receive of His Everything!

A fair exchange? I think not! But it is the terms of God and we may gratefully receive of His abundant goodness and kindness!

“Take eat, this I My body broken for you. This cup is the New Testament in My blood; this do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.” (1 Corinthians 11:24 – 25).

Jesus is knocking at the door of your heart... how will you respond?

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com