Song of Solomon 1:4b

“The King has brought me into His chambers.” Song of Solomon 1:4b

Today we will briefly see the fifth place of relationship with Christ. It is the Throne Room; the place we are invited to conduct business with Him, not to mention learn to reign with Him. “Let us therefore, come boldly to the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.” (Hebrews 4:16).

When the King makes a decree He issues it from His throne. It is a seat of His power and is invested with His authority. “The Lord has prepared His throne in the heaven’s and His kingdom rules over all.” (Psalm 103:19).

From this vantage point we are invited to come and “make our requests known to God.” (Philippians 4:6b). We have the assurance of Scripture that “if He hears us, whatever we ask; we know that we have the petitions that we desired of Him.” (1 John 5:14 – 15).

This invitation to approach the Throne of Grace is in itself an assurance we can receive whatever we have need of. We are never to merely hope that somehow, someday God may catch a glimpse of us pleading and begging down here on this natural and earthly level. Rather we are to draw near to Him, enter His very throne room, and ask big!

Finally, we must acquaint ourselves with this throne room, for it is here we as members of the body of Christ will rule – “seated with Him in heavenly places.”

Can you receive this by faith?

You belong with Him now, ruling with Jesus, seated in the heavenly places far above all principalities and powers! A royal priesthood, a holy nation, a chosen generation showing forth the praises of Him! (Romans 5:17; Ephesians 1:17 – 23; 1 Peter 2:9).
