Song of Solomon 1:6b

“...They made me the keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard have I not kept.”
Song of Solomon 1:6b

The events of life may often thrust things upon us that we would prefer not to have experienced! These events may even prevent us from doing that which we would desire. They may benefit others while they may hurt our own advancement or profit.

These situations may be difficult but they present us with an opportunity – an opportunity to demonstrate to the glory of God the inner character of Jesus within our lives. Rather than an opportunity to fall behind personally such circumstances will allow you to demonstrate faithfulness to the Lord. “And whatever you do, do it heartily unto the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance, for you serve the Lord Christ.” (Colossians 3:23 – 24).

A popular saying is, “When life hands you a lemon, make lemonade!” Today, if life appears to have handed you a lemon, if things aren’t as you would like, why not begin to sweeten things by your attitude? Begin by offering God thanks! “In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.” (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

It is always Gods’ will for you to offer Him thanks. Once you release genuine praise – He will be able to begin prospering your circumstances no matter how poorly things may now look!

Yes, right now... “Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!”

PRAISE THE LORD!
