

Before the THRONE The Devotional

Volume 2

Books of Poetry

Song of Solomon 2:10 – 13

“My beloved spoke and said to me; “Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth; the time for singing has come, and the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land. The fig tree puts forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grapes give a good smell. Rise up my love, my fair one and come away.” Song of Solomon 2:10 – 13

The Bride of Christ is longing to hear these words – “Rise up My love, My fair one, and come away!” It is our Blessed Hope. (Titus 2:13). It is our deepest longing. It is our final moment in this realm, before “in a twinkling of an eye” we are changed! (1 Corinthians 15:51 – 53)

The struggle of life’s winters and conflicts will be over! Blessing and fruitfulness will surround us. What a Day! It is approaching rapidly! Jesus surely is poised to leap from His throne at the Father’s command and call us to Himself!

Until then be encouraged in this – the seasons of this life do change. Should you be in a winter season – a time of seeming lifelessness and hard going – the Lord, Who changes the seasons, is with you in your wintertime!

Selah!

Take this time to listen for His voice – not your wishful thinking, but His still small voice. And soon you will hear, “My love, My fair one, the winter is past!”

“Maranatha, Lord Jesus!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com