

Before the THRONE
The Devotional

Volume 2

Books of Poetry

Song of Solomon 4:16

“Awake, O north wind, and come south wind; blow upon My garden, that its spices may flow out. Let My beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.” Song of Solomon 4:16

An enclosed garden may be hidden from view but its fragrance still wafts over the wall. Christ “makes us manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place. For we are a sweet savour of Christ...” (2 Corinthians 2:14 – 15). The Master Gardener calls to the Wind of His Spirit – “come and blow upon My garden for it is ripe with good fruits and My beloved must taste and see of My goodness.”

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son...” (John 3:16)

Selah!

I have come into My garden, My sister, My spouse... I have gathered... I have eaten... I have drunk... Eat, O friends! Drink, yes, drink deeply, O beloved ones!” Song of Solomon 5:1

It is from the fruits of your life that the Lord Jesus invites His beloved friends to partake and be satisfied. He has laboured over you gathering you first to Himself so He might fellowship with you. But then, He desires His beloved – the lost for whom He died – to taste of His garden by tasting of His fruits found within your life!

“North wind, awake! Come, south wind! Blow upon my life in such a manner that Jesus’ friends might come to taste of His goodness from the fruits of the Spirit that are presently growing in my life!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com