The Devotional

The Prophetic Books

Zechariah 4:7

“Who are you, O great mountain? ... you shall become a plain and this shall be accomplished with shouts of “Grace, grace” to it.” Zechariah 4:7

The shout of faith! It is not the volume, nor is it the intensity of the emotion, rather it is the eruption of the measure of faith, the intensity of faith from an overflowing heart that has fed and meditated upon God’s Word! “For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” (Matthew 12:34b).

The shout of faith is charged with the very authority of God Himself! The demonic yield and the angelic act at the voice of God in the believer’s mouth! “We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak.” (2 Corinthians 4:13).

This “shout of faith” may be a literal shout. “So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets... and it happened... the people shouted... and the wall fell down flat...” (Joshua 6:20). The “shout of faith” may also be a whisper in prayer whose intensity of faith shouts its request to Heaven and demands hell to back off! “Now Hannah, she spoke in the heart, only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard.” (1 Samuel 1:13). One thing is certain, the shout of faith is full of faith and it embodies the voice of God – thus marshalling and directing Heaven’s forces to accomplish the will of God!

What mountains are staring at you today? “Whosoever shall say to this mountain, “Be removed, and be cast into the sea” and shall not doubt in his heart but shall believe that those things which he says shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he says!” (Mark 11:23).

I feel a shout coming on, don’t you?!
