

“How can we possess our promised land?” Deuteronomy 1:28 paraphrased

Be careful! A man’s discouraged heart can infect others with faith robbing words and attitudes. Words of murmuring and complaint, while maybe not intentional, do have a harmful effect and they do have a diabolical origin. We must both guard our own hearts from the infection of unbelieving words. We must also not allow our desire to comfort the discouraged cause us to drop our guard enabling their unbelief to penetrate our own hearts. Discouragement is an inheritance thief!

Be careful! If not properly handled, anger may bring a snare to your soul, and you may again, miss your inheritance. “Keep away from angry, short-tempered people, or you will learn to be like them and endanger your soul.” (Proverb 22:24-25).

Be careful! Discouragement and anger may lead to presumption. Presumption is man’s effort to overcome his faith failure by endeavoring to force God to act anyway! Presumption is often a precursor to spiritual shipwreck.” (1Timothy 1:19).

Beloved, “guard your heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life.” (Proverbs 4:23)

In Jesus’ name, root out anything that will prevent you from possessing your promised land!
