

“But from there (your captivity) you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find Him, if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.” Deuteronomy 4 :29

Why is that so many people wait until they are in trouble before they will wholeheartedly seek after the things of God? Why is it that we wait until we come to a point of pressure and need, distress and crisis, to turn to the LORD? Jesus didn't say, “Wait until the trouble begins and magnifies before you seek God.” No, He said, “Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33)

The Psalmist understood this when he said, “O, God, You are my God, early will I seek You.” (Psalm 63:1) Wouldn't it be wiser to seek the LORD before your day begins, before trouble can confront you? “He will show you things to come!” (John 16:13b)

As we make seeking the LORD our highest priority we can expect His benefits to overtake us. We can be assured the Holy Spirit will speak to us concerning our future.

“Early will I seek You!”
