

“But you are not the only ones with whom the LORD is making this covenant with its obligations. The LORD your God is making this covenant with you who stand in His presence today and also with all future generations of Israel..” Deuteronomy 29:14-15

Covenant transcends individuals. Covenant transcends time. “For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even to as many as the Lord our God, shall call.” (Acts 2:39). The various covenants established by God with the Old Testament saints all find their ultimate consummation in the New Covenant that Jesus made on behalf of both His Father and mankind – and why the God-Man, Jesus Christ could bridge the gulf between the two! “For there is one God, and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus.” (1 Timothy 2:5)

The New Covenant, calls individuals to a personal relationship with the Lord. This Gospel is not intended for you alone but for “whosoever” will believe. “Neither with you only do I make this covenant.” God’s choice in electing us and “cutting covenant” with us is an awesome thing, but there are a myriad of others for whom Jesus cut covenant, but they have never heard the joyous news! Don’t you believe that it is our responsibility to tell those “who are not here”?
