

“The secret things belong unto the LORD our God; but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.”
Deuteronomy 29:14-15

Religion masks the true intentions of God’s heart! It masks those things that God longs to share with us. It masks the practical working of His Kingdom in our lives. Regrettably then, religious men and institutions are the ones who most often hide these things from us. Revealed truth does not mean automatic manifestation. “The just shall live by faith.”

Revealed truths belong to the believer, yet he must still exercise his faith to obtain the promised result! Religion mocks the word of God by saying, “that may appear to be a promise of God for us, but since it didn’t automatically happen, it must have been for another time or for another generation.” What utter nonsense! Revealed truth must still be believed for! There is no getting around our need to “live by faith.”

The revelation may come easy but there still is the need of the labor of faith. (Hebrews 4:11). But thanks be to God, He has not left us alone. “But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit... Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is of God, that we might know the thing that have been freely given to us by God.” (1 Corinthians 2:10-12)

Don’t let any man or religion talk you out of those things our Father has freely given you. The revealed things rightfully belong to you – forever! Now, go possess them!
