Esther 4:13-14

“Think not within your heart that you will escape because you are in the king’s house. For if you hold your peace at this time, then shall relief and deliverance arise to the Jew from another place, but you and your father’s house, shall be destroyed. And who knows whether you are come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” Esther 4:13-14

There is always a broader view point than our own. Our actions will always affect others. What is sown by us and through our lives will be reap in the lives of others.

We understand that the Lord is working His plan to this end... that His kingdom will be established upon the earth. Further, we understand that somehow He is weaving us (in spite of all our sins, faults, and troubles) into a master plan and our part is vital to His kingdom’s coming. Now, should we choose to not cooperate with His initiative and leading, fine. But in so choosing, understand this, He will find and use someone else! Also understand and be aware of this – His kingdom is coming, with or without us! So make the right choices!

“And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.” (Romans 8:28).

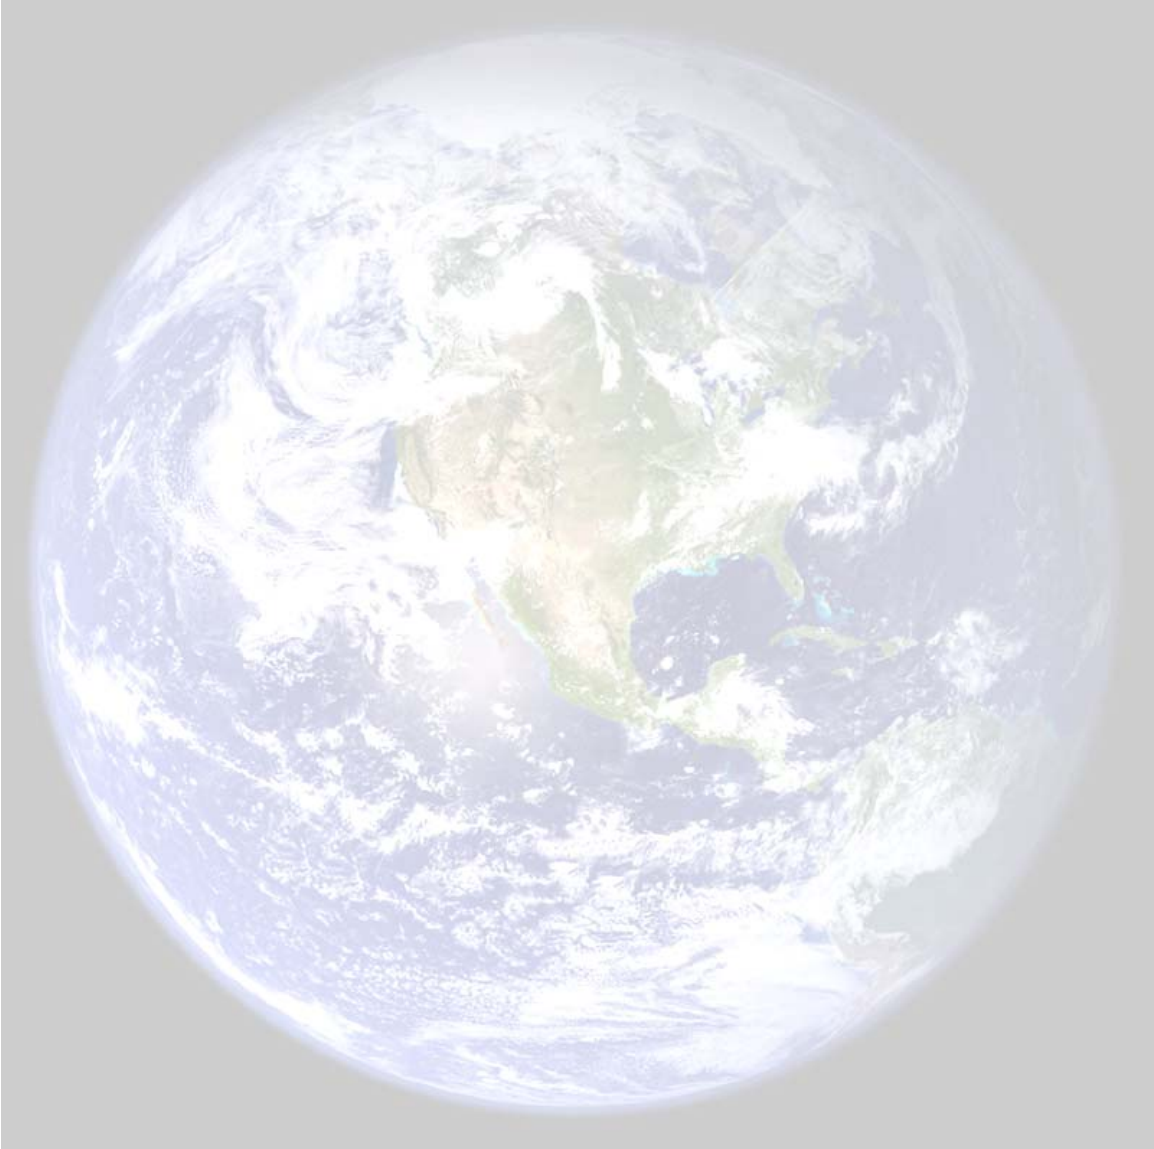

It is not a mistake that God has called you to this time and to this generation! And, like David, we must “serve our generation by the will of God.” (Acts 13:36). There is destiny upon these last generations before the return of Jesus Christ. “The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few!” (Matthew 9:37)

“He that has ears to hear let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church...”

My son, run with the dreams and visions God has placed deep within your heart. Seek Him first. Set your eyes upon Jesus. Pursue His kingdom’s righteousness.

For you have come to the Kingdom for such a time as this!
