Esther 10:3

“For Mordecai, the Jew, was next to the King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brethren, seeking wealth for his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.” Esther 10:3

On the turn of an event the LORD God is quite capable of raising a prisoner slave like Joseph to the second highest office in the land! He is able to promote captive youths like Daniel and his friends to the highest and most honoured positions in the kingdom. He is able as well, to promote a faithful uncle and servant such as Mordecai to sit at the King’s table – even at the king’s side!

And what is our God able to do with you?

On the turn of an event, the LORD God is capable and willing to elevate you from captivity to sin and self to a saint of higher honour and position than Joseph or Daniel or Mordecai! “But God Who is rich in mercy, for His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in sins has made us alive together with Christ (by grace are you saved)... And has raised us up together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.” (Ephesians 2:4-6).

And what event does such a glorious future and present opportunity await? The Lord awaits your heart felt repentance – turning from your attitudes and actions – a heart-felt sorrow for your sin, and a whole-hearted embracing of Jesus Christ as your Lord and Saviour.

“Lord, here I am. I repent and turn from my rebellion and sin... I receive You as my personal Lord and Saviour. I believe that You died for my sin and that Your resurrection victory was to bring me Your very life! Thank You Lord for forgiving me and for receiving me now as Your child. I believe You have a destiny for me to fulfill in Your Kingdom! Today, I set my face to that end and to Your glory! In that Name above all other names – in the name of my Lord Jesus Christ, Amen!

Awesome! Alleluia!
