Exodus 2:24

“And God heard their groaning and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.” Exodus 2:24

“For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you do show the Lord’s death till He comes.” 1 Corinthians 11:26

Jesus gave us, who are so prone to forgetfulness, a continual reminder of His covenant. It can be easy for us to feel sorry for ourselves and in moments of such selfish introspection, we may even dare to wonder if the LORD has forgotten us. But as we come to His Covenant Table, we are reminded a fresh and a new, of the Saviour who has never forgotten His covenant with us – no matter how miserable or how far we may have fallen!

“And God heard their groaning and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.” Covenant is a serious matter and every covenant that God cut with men – whether with Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, or David – they all ultimately found their fullest and highest manifestation in the covenant Jesus Christ instituted with His Father – on behalf of all mankind. As our God has never forgotten the eternal sacrifice of His Son, so let us determine today that we too, will not forget what He has so graciously done for us.

Father, today, found in Your Son Jesus Christ, I remember... ..thank You!
