Exodus 2:24-25

“And God heard their groaning... and God knew their plight.” Exodus 2:24-25

There is a deep that calls to deep; a cry of the human heart that connects us with the heart of God.

Religious traditions hold that man cannot possibly know what the LORD has in store for us. They may site, “Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor has entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.” (1 Corinthians 2:9). Man’s thinking will always fence God’s good intentions from His people. “But God...” “But God has revealed them (the things which He has prepared for us), to us through His Spirit.” As believers then, we must “pray down” if you will. Pray down to the deep things of God where we can begin to see the “but God’s” of His plans for us. We must “drill” past the entrapments and limitations of man’s traditions, his partial thinking and a god who is too small to meet mankind’s every need!

This “drilling” into the deeper things of God is by the gift of the Holy Spirit and His enabling of the believer to “pray in the Spirit” (1 Corinthians 14:14-15; Jude 20). It is as we allow the Spirit of God to “help our infirmities”, that is, our inability to pray accurately, that we begin to catch the revelation of our Father’s plan and purpose for us! Yield yourself then to the Holy Spirit’s promptings, allowing Him to take you deeper and deeper into the things of God!
