Exodus 14:15

“And the LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry to Me? Tell the children of Israel to go forward.” Exodus 14:15

Faith acts! At some moment we chose fear or faith to go backward or to go forward in the Christian life. It is in this moment of our choosing that our previous times of prayer and meditation in the Word of God pay off. What we have put in our hearts will now, at this moment manifest in our choice. Will we remain paralyzed by indecision and fear? Will we falter under life’s pressures? Or do we place our trust in God and act in a courageous and living faith? To be unprepared is to choose poorly. “If anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him.” (Hebrews 10:38).

While the LORD is not surprised by the reticence of His people to act in faith, surely it disappoints Him. As Moses was called of God and appointed to a specific task, and as he was supernaturally graced and equipped to accomplish that task, in like manner, the LORD has redeemed us and has given us His supernatural gracings to complete our assignments. You have been given the same Spirit that Jesus relied upon with all of His fruits and giftings. He has endued you with dynamite power and clothed you with His own righteousness! And if that is not enough, we are now rightful sons of God who bear His name!

The Lord’s question to Moses might well be asked of us today, “Why do you cry to Me? ... go forward!”
