Exodus 15:2

“The LORD is my Strength and Song, and He is become my Salvation; His is my God, and I will prepare Him a habitation; my father’s God, and I will exalt Him.” Exodus 15:2

Tell me, who or what can defeat a person whose strength, song, and salvation is the LORD!? “We are “hupernikao” (the Greek word for “super conquerors”) through Him who loved us!” (Romans 8:37). If this is so, and it is, what then prevents us from experiencing this type of overwhelming victory in a practical sense?

The Song of Moses continues, “And I will prepare Him a habitation.” When family or friends are coming to your home for a few days stay, some sort of preparation is made. Surely they will give the guest room, if not the whole house, a good cleaning. Maybe they will even add some fresh paint to spruce up the guest room’s appearance. Special foods are bought and maybe even fresh flowers for the vase. Everything must be ready to welcome your guests! Everything must be just right!

Jesus, our most valued and treasured Guest, is too often treated far too casually. We neglect a walk of holiness and are rarely concerned with what might grieve or offend Him. No wonder then the “hupernikao” Christians experience is rarely experienced or demonstrated.

Wouldn’t today be a good day to “prepare Him a habitation”?
