

Before the THRONE

The Devotional

Volume 1

Books of the Law & History

Exodus 15:11

“Who is like unto You, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?” Exodus 15:11

The Man Jesus Christ towers above all others! All of Mankind’s finest specimens pale in comparison to His radiance and majesty. Indeed, who is like unto Him!?

Glorious in Holiness. Holiness is not a set of religious rules, nor is it the length one wears their hair. Neither is it the length of the skirt or the amount of jewelry worn or not worn. When men endeavor to be holy in their own strength legalism is lurking at the door. True holiness is not gained by demand nor is it able to be legislated. Holiness for the believer is catching a glimpse of Jesus Christ, and in so doing, becoming, no, being transformed, albeit, little by little, into His glorious image. “But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. (1 Corinthians 3:18).

Fearful in praises. Dare we even speak the Name that is above all others!? Yet He has become our Saviour, our deliverer, the Lover of our soul! How can we withhold our praise as we speak His name in reverence?

Doing Wonders. “To whom much is forgiven, the same love much.” (Luke 7:47). The praise of God rings the loudest from those who have seen the depth of their sin and subsequently the greatness of His mercy and forgiveness. Surely the greatest wonder the Lord has done is to have died upon Calvary’s Tree to redeem your life back to the Father!

“Who is like unto You, O LORD, among the gods!?”