The Devotional

Volume 1

Books of the Law & History

Exodus 36:5,7b

“They spoke to Moses saying, “the people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded us to do... Indeed too much!” Exodus 36:5,7b

Say it out loud, “too much!” More than enough! If we would allow Him, at every turn, we would see that the LORD is El Shaddai, the God who is more than enough! Heaven has never been in want! The supply of the Kingdom is always full and overflowing. “The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want.” (Psalm 23:1)

As surely as religious men demand someone else’s labor to achieve their “righteous” standing, so religion has most often bound men in the chains of poverty and lack. Assuredly, there are people and circumstance when the Spirit requires a sacrifice of material possession. (Mark 10:30). However, these sacrifices always promise a far greater reward for faithful service and discipleship. For too long, a spirit of poverty has handicapped Christians. In these Last Days, a revelation of our God’s power and provision is being released once again among His people. “The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, says the LORD of Hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former.” (Haggai 2:8)

Indeed, “too much!” God’s provision for your life and ministry is far greater than you have previously imagined. Go ahead and dream big! “My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:19)
