Books of the Law & History

Ezra 7:6,9,10,28

“And Ezra came to Jerusalem ... according to the good hand of God upon him. For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel. ... and I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD, my God, was upon me...” Ezra 7:6, 9-10,28 Also Ezra 7:6,9, 28, 8:18, 22, 31

Our Father’s hand is outstretched to bless mankind. His intention is benevolent, His purpose to reconcile. To experience the “good hand of God upon” your life is to experience the Anointing of The Holy Spirit. It is the Anointing, the power, the blessing of God manifest upon you that brings success.

“The gifts and callings of God are without repentance.” (Romans 11:29). God chooses and God appoints. His favour is based upon His sovereign choice and all of our labours and works will not change that fact. “For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son...” (Romans 8:29). However, there are certain heart attitudes that once developed within our lives position us to be used and blessed by God. Ezra experienced the good hand of God because he had prepared his heart to seek the LORD, obey His Word, and the share with others the goodness of God. Our Father is longing to reveal in your life His “good hand”.

Won’t you purpose today to seek the LORD with all your heart, to walk in His ways, and to tell others the Good News o Jesus Christ?

“At Thy right hand are pleasures forever more.” (Psalm 16:11).
