Genesis 30:27

“...for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.”
Genesis 30:27

How anemic the Church is today; struggling and even striving for the blessing of God! The Syrophenician woman understood that around the believer's table there is plenty of blessing – enough for everyone! “True, Lord, yet the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their master's table.” (Matthew 15:27) It is a truth – we, the Church of Jesus Christ, have already been blessed with “every spiritual blessing in heavenly places in Christ.” (Ephesians 1:3). Wherever we walk, wherever we go, there should be ample evidence that Another walks with us! In all that we do and all that we say there should be the record of our lives “that we have been with Jesus.” (Acts 4:13)

Because of His overflowing presence within our lives Jesus begins to reach out through us to others lives. He enriches them, He heals them, and He blesses them, and extends His forgiveness to them – all through us!

What is the experience of those you know concerning the God you serve? May we today so experience Him, that others will say “for I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake.”
