

“... and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.” Genesis 39:22b

“Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 18:4

Some folks work for the church because it affords them a position or a title – maybe something they could never earn in the world’s system. Others may labor for the salary or for the benefits and maybe even the praise of their superiors. But then there are those Christians who serve because they delight in just serving the Master!

Many believers, if they found themselves in Joseph’s position, would never rise to the top like he did simply because they are not humble enough to serve unless it carries with it some avenue of promotion! The character of Joseph is on display even in prison, “Whatever they did there, he was the doer of it.” It didn’t matter whether it was a large thing or a small thing to Joseph. If it needed to be done you would find Joseph doing it!

And it will be those same Christians who labor for a position who will say, “If I had the favor Joseph had, I would be successful as well.” But don’t you see? Whatsoever needed to be done, Joseph did it? The Lord’s favor rested on him because of a simple humility that was willing to be a blessing to others regardless of the position or duty. May it be said of us, “Whatever they did there, I was the doer of it.”
