Genesis 49:10

“The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be.” Genesis 49:10

The rule of God’s Messiah has never departed from His hand. Men have rebelled and continue to do so to this day, but the LORD and His Messiah sit in the heavens and laugh. (Psalm 2) “His throne has been established in the heaven and His Kingdom rules over all.” (Psalm 103:19) Jesus refused to allow men to make Him King (John 6:15). How dare mere men presume to anoint the Anointed One! How outrageous to offer Jesus what had already been given to Him by the Father!

Today we too must struggle with this issue. Do we offer Jesus what is not ours to give? Do we presume to believe that somehow we can bargain with the Lawgiver? Having yielded to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, the believer no longer has a right to rule, even over his own life – “for we are bought with a price.” (1 Corinthians 6:20)

There is a coming day when Messiah’s reign will be seen throughout the earth. As we personally submit to His Lordship today, we are hastening His coming and His righteous reign upon the earth!

Maranatha! Even so come, Lord Jesus!
