Genesis 50:20

“Ye thought evil against me, but God meant it unto good.” Genesis 50:20

Men do not have the final word concerning your life! Evil intentions, diabolic plans and hateful purposes do not have the final say either! Our heavenly Father has been thinking about you! (Psalm 115:12) And His every thought toward you is a thought of peace and blessing. Should others plan or devise evil toward us, we can rest assured that the Lord will turn it to our good. “Every detail works to our advantage and to God’s glory...” (2 Corinthians 4:15 The Message). Nothing gets past our Father’s watchful care, especially to those who are the “apple of His eye.”

There is a “mystery of evil.” Those who are born of God, those who have experienced the purity of the Spirit are often left confused and shaken that evil would so endeavor to attack them. But we also understand that it is not God, but the thief who has come to steal, kill and destroy. (John 10:10a). Jesus has come as the express image of the Father to execute His Father’s thoughts toward us – “thoughts for good, not of evil, to give us a future and an expected end.” So, no matter what position you find yourself in today; encourage yourself knowing that your heavenly Father is thinking good thoughts about you and that Jesus Christ intends to bring those good thoughts to pass in your life!

Father, today I choose to believe that Your thoughts toward me are for good! I reject the lies of the devil – in Jesus’ name, “Devil, I pull down the strongholds of thoughts and lies you attempt to get me to believe! I am founded upon the Word of God and I believe Him! In Jesus Name! Amen!”
