

“But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.” Genesis 6:8

Such evil and depth of depravity lies within the human heart and mind that the Lord regrets having created man! (Genesis 6:5-7). Not only had man’s wickedness surpassed all expectations but even his thoughts were continually set upon evil.

And such the stage is set for a manifestation of the great goodness and mercy of our Redeemer King! “But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.” (Romans 5:20).

As evil and wickedness emerges to unprecedented heights it is merely a stepping stool for the grace of God to reveal the unsearchable riches of God’s character and the unfathomable depths of His love toward the fallen race of Adam.

No matter how far your sin has abounded, no matter how far you have turned from God’s goodness, no matter how distant you feel you are from His presence, if you will but humble yourself and turn from your sin and rebellion, God’s grace will abound yet greater than your sin!
