Genesis 15:1

“After these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying, “Fear not, Abram: I am your shield, and exceeding great reward.” Genesis 15:1

“And when He called His twelve disciples to Him... Matthew 10:1

The goal of Christianity is not heaven! Neither is it good works or a life of sacrifice. “And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profits me nothing.” (1 Corinthians 13:3).

The goal of Christianity is to possess love Himself – the Lord Jesus Christ. He is our Prize, our Devotion, and our High Calling!

Abraham, the father of our faith, understood and pursued this same goal as the Lord came to him in a vision and said, “Fear not, Abram: I am your shield, and your exceeding great reward.”

What goals have you been pursuing? What devotion and expense have you given to that which is temporal? What devotion and expense have you labored only to see it fade?

Jesus, the One who “changes not” and Who is the “same yesterday, today and forever” is not calling today’s disciples to greater works, but as He called the Twelve to Himself, so He is calling you today – to Himself! (The other stuff will come in line as you walk with Him!)

Why not respond to His voice today? “Jesus, I hear You and I am coming!”
