Joshua 11:15

“As the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did, He left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.”
Joshua 11:15

Faith... faithful... faithfulness! “And I thank Christ Jesus, our Lord, who has enabled me, in that He counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry.” (1 Timothy 1:12). Faithfulness is a commodity that is in high demand, but is in short supply. “A faithful man, who can find?” (Proverb 20:6). “Help Lord; for the godly man ceases; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.” (Psalm 12:1).

Ah, but the reward for faithfulness far exceeds the price paid to obtain it. “The faithful man abounds with blessings.” (Proverb 28:20)). But even more importantly and of eternal value is that the faithful are entrusted with the ministry of the Master! He looks for and appoints those who are faithful.

Jesus’ master plan of worldwide evangelism hinges upon the faithful imparting and passing along to others that which they have received from Him. The Apostle Paul said, “And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit to faithful men, who shall be able to teach other also.” (2 Timothy 2:2). As Paul finished his course (2 Timothy 4:7), and Joshua, “left nothing undone”, so too might we be found faithful in all that the LORD has entrusted to us.
