

Before the THRONE

The Devotional

Volume 1

Books of the Law & History

Judges 5:20

“The stars fought from heaven. From their courses they fought against Sisera.” Judges 5:20

“If God be for us, who can be against us?” (Romans 8:31)

It is difficult for our minds to grasp how the LORD can put us over into victory when all we can see by the natural eye is insurmountable trouble! Yet, if we will but thrust Him, He will make a way and that way will always lead us to victory!

The natural mind does not, nor indeed can it; receive the things of the Spirit. Surely Peter wondered, “How can a fish help pay my taxes?” (Matthew 17:27). Paul and Silas offered praise and were miraculously released from the lowest dungeon. (Acts 16:25-26) Weary disciples having fished all night and caught nothing, now in bright daylight obey the Master’s word and catch more fish than they could imagine! (John 21:11; John 6:1-13). Or what of the widow who offered the man of God the first portion and the rest sustained her for months! (1 Kings 17:13-16)

You may rightly ask, “how can a song of heartfelt praise release me from a prison of depression?). Do you suppose a simple obedience to the Master’s word might produce an incredible financial harvest? How will I survive on such a small pension? If you will believe, you will see the same miracles as these from the pages of the scriptures testify.

As the farmer himself, “knows not how”, the seed germinates and grows and bears fruit, so, we as well may not know how God will bring a miracle to pass in our lives but we need to know rather that He will bring it to pass if we will but simply trust Him to do it for us! (Mark 4:27)