Leviticus 7:8

“And the priest who offers anyone’s burnt offering, that priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering, which he has offered.” Leviticus 7:8

It is said, “Clothes make the man.” Today, with what are you clothed? “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags.” (Isaiah 64:6)

The payment for sin is death. As the penitent sinner brought his offering to the LORD and the priest in turn then sacrificed the lamb as an atonement for their sin, the priest was allowed to keep the animal’s skin for himself.

O saint, as a believer/priest today, we are called to apply the sacrifice of the Lamb of God to our lives, and thus then “put on Christ,” our Passover Lamb as our new garments! “For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.” (Galatians 3:27).

Once we are forgiven, we need to then “put on Christ”, to allow His life to cloth us from within with His character. “Put on, therefore as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering... and above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness.” (Colossians 3:12-14).

The One who died for our sin, has now become our covering! Yes, indeed, “Clothes make the man!”

What part of your spiritual wardrobe needs a little work?
