

“But My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him and has followed Me fully, him will I bring into the land...” Numbers 14:24

There are a few people in the Scriptures where the LORD leaves no room for conjecture about their character. In fact, the LORD decides He wants to give a personal reference to these outstanding few!

Caleb, the Centurion, the Syrophoenician woman are a few of the men and women who gained the attention of Heaven, who caught the eye of the LORD. “For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him.” (2 Chronicles 16:9).

Caleb’s example for us is three-fold. First, he is called by the LORD; “My servant...” Whose servant are you? (Romans 6:16). Secondly, we are told he has “another spirit with him.” It’s all too easy to live and act like the world, isn’t it? Christians are called to a high, holy and heavenly calling – we’re not to be or to live like the world lives! If asked, what would your friends and family say about your lifestyle? What would your colleagues say about you? Finally, the LORD tells us that Caleb followed Him fully. Half-hearted service is dangerous. (Revelation 3:16). It is the passionate and determined who make a difference in life.

May we bring such Heavenly attention to ourselves by following Caleb’s example!
