

“He has not observed iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen wickedness in Israel. The LORD his God is with him. And the shout of a king is among them.” Numbers 23:21

It is not that God is blind! Nor is He like a dotting old man who refuses to see the faults and sins of his spoiled children. We know the very opposite, “and there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.” (Hebrew 4:13)

What is it then that apparently conceals the sin of His people? Or could it be that the matter of sin has been removed from God’s people altogether, so in fact, there is no sin to be seen?

Is it possible?

Amazing! Wonderful! “As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.” (Psalm 103:12) The blood of the Lamb has now cleansed what was once an indelible stain! “And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, “Drink all of it; for this is My blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission (the forgiveness or the sending away) of sins!” (Matthew 26:27-28).

Son... “...though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.” (Isaiah 1:18)
